CHARITY CASES CUT REVENUE OF LOCAL HOSPITAL

A sharp increase in charity service aggregating $2,700 has caused a decrease of over $1,000 in gross income of the Annie M. Warner Hospital in the first quarter of 1953 despite an increase in occupancy during the comparative period of 1952.

Directors of the hospital were given these figures at their meeting Friday evening in the Musselman Annex. With occupancy during the first three months of the current fiscal year at 71 per cent and income down $1,000 the directors expressed their appreciation of the contribution of 6,469 Adams Countyans of $12,971.45 through the hospital's letter campaign.

Ambulance Service Problem
Walter R. Doud, executive director of the hospital, told the board that he had estimated rising markets and had increased his medical supply inventories several thousand dollars. This will mean some savings during the balance of the year he said.

Another problem confronting the directors is the matter of free ambulance service. The original fund that created and maintained free ambulance service for the past several years is almost depleted. Mr. Doud told the directors that 45 letters sent to principal contributors had brought in only $500. Unless this fund can be re-established the hospital will face two alternatives, that of incurring the expense of maintaining free service of giving up free service.

President John Hauser directed Philip M. Jones, treasurer of the hospital, to select a committee to see what can be done about raising the necessary funds before a change in policy is determined.

Stresses Letter Campaign
"Costs of medical supplies are increasing. At the same time the charity load is climbing. While the results of the first quarter show an unfavorable trend, the problem is not yet serious for if the balance of the year will continue at normal levels in these respects, the chances are good that we will achieve normal results," Mr. Doud explained.

Mr. Jones said the hospital's operating funds are at satisfactory levels. He stressed the importance of the contributions resulting from the letter campaign and emphasized that it is these funds that pay for the sharp upturn in charity work for which the hospital is not compensated by the state.

President Hauser pointed out that there were 310 more contributions in 1953 than during the same period of 1952.

Expresses Appreciation
"It makes us feel very proud of the people of Adams County. This support is inspiring to the directors and to the staff and it reflects the good will the people of this county hold for their hospital," he said.

It was reported that the Snack Bar, operated by the Women's auxiliary, is meeting with "fine success."

Dr. C. Harold Johnson, president of the medical staff, said the staff has a number of recommendations to offer at a meeting of the executive committees of the staff and the hospital directors which will be held in the near future.

President Hauser introduced Clark Smith, W. Lincoln Ave., Gettysburg, as a new director attending his first meeting. Mr. Smith was elected to fill the unexpired term of the late William Durboraw.

Quarterly Report
The extent of the service rendered by the hospital was reflected in the reports of the treasurer and the executive director. In the first quarter of 1953-54 fiscal year, June and August, 1,047 patients were admitted to the hospital. The average number of patients per day ranged from 62 to 75. There were 236 births.

Receipts were $76,356.27 and expenditures $78,422.07 or $2,065.80 in excess of income. Earned income for the three months was $71,408.54 including $1,273.50 from the state and $455.04 in the form of donations and the sale of salvage. Operating expenses were $65,311.79 to which had to be added $1,860.30 for insurance and taxes; $901.57 for bad debts and allowances; $1,167.05 for contract allowances and $5,479.00 for free services. The $3,311.17 loss for the three months included $1,030.75 which is non-repeating.

"This report reflects the fine management of our executive director and his staff," President Hauser commented. "It shows clearly that the so-called operating loss is due to the charity service. This illustrates that the hospital is admirably fulfilling its responsibilities to the people of Adams County."

Another Charge Against Woodward

A new charge of assault has been filed by borough police before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder against Chester Woodward, 32, S. Washington St.

At a hearing before the justice Friday night Woodward was held for court on the charge. He maintained his innocence of the charge throughout the hearing.

The charge is the second to be brought against Woodward as the result of an attack on three co-eds on Springs Ave. September 19. He has been in jail since that time on the original charge of indecent assault and battery, also brought before Justice Snyder. He was returned to jail to await trial in November.

Woodward today paid $8 for replacement of four windows he broke at the jail during a "rampage" after he was placed there following his original arrest.

MECO STEPS UP STREET LIGHTS WITH NEW UNITS

The Metropolitan Edison Company is in the midst of a campaign to make Gettysburg a lighter, brighter town—at least so far as its street lights are concerned.

Changes are being made in some 110 of the 500 lights in the borough to bring more power to the street lights in the residential areas, Richard Drees, manager of the electric company, said today.

The present 1,000 lumen lights are being increased generally to 2,500 lumen power and at street corners the power is being jumped as high as 6,000 lumen. Depending on the "darkness" of the intersection, the corner lights will be either 4,000 or 6,000 lumen power.

The change involves not only putting in large bulbs but removal of the present reflectors and replacement by closed, glass reflectors.

When the work is completed, about November 1, all of the street lights in the borough, with the exception of the "White Way" around the square and out the four main streets, will be completely modernized. The new bulbs and reflectors being placed on the streets, in the residential area are similar to the ones placed about three years ago on the main streets to provide better illumination for those areas.

50TH WEDDING DAY OBSERVED

The three children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Millhimes, Gettysburg R. 4, and their families gathered Friday evening for a family dinner at The Willows along the Harrisburg Rd. in celebration of the couple's golden wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Millhimes were married September 29, 1903, in the Reformed parsonage at New Oxford by the Rev. Mr. Mauger. They have resided all their married life in the New Chester section. Mr. Millhimes is a retired farmer. He is 73 and Mrs. Millhimes is 72 years of age. She is the former Ida Sponseller of New New Oxford.

There were 14 at the dinner on Friday. There was a large wedding cake and the table centerpiece was a "golden money tree," a gilded tree with 50 one-dollar bills for its foliage. Today there was a basket of golden flowers presented to the couple by their grandchildren.

Those present included the couple's three sons: Rufus, Charles L. and Edgar S. Millhimes, all of New Oxford R. 2, and five of the couple's six grandchildren. Absent was Pfc. Hartman Millhimes, son of Rufus, who is serving with the armed forces in Alaska.

The importance of Pennsylvania in world affairs is strikingly illustrated by data recently provided by the U. S. Bureau of Mines on the mineral production of the United States and various European countries, and of our own Commonwealth. It should be remembered that the area of Pennsylvania is 45,333 square miles, that our population is approximately 10,600,000, and that we are one of the smaller states, being 31st in area.

Despite our relatively small size, the State Planning Board of the Pennsylvania Department of Commerce points out, we are first in the nation in many of the most important industrial raw materials and in approximately 50 classes of manufactured products. We also lead many foreign nations.

Snack Bar Is In Operation In Waiting Room At Warner Hospital For Convenience Of Patients And Visitors

A Snack Bar is in operation in the waiting room at the Annie M. Warner Hospital for the convenience of patients, hospital employees and visitors.

Mrs. Leroy H. Winebrenner, chairman of the House Committee of the Hospital Auxiliary, sponsors of the Snack Bar, said today, "The few days we have been in business our receipts have been gratifying. We have had considerable patronage."

The Snack Bar, long considered a much-needed convenience at the hospital, deals in magazines, ice cream, coffee, tea, sandwiches, sugar buns, doughnuts, candy gum, tooth paste, tooth brushes, flower gardens and other items. It is open for business from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. and from 7 until 8:30 p.m. It is staffed by members and non-members of the Auxiliary. Mrs. Winebrenner said that three shifts are operating, the volunteers working from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. or from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m. or 7 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.

Call For Volunteers
"We will appreciate women of Gettysburg and the county volunteering to serve at the Snack Bar during any of these hours. It has also been suggested that each community in the county volunteer to staff the Snack Bar for one week periods. The women in these communities can set up their own schedule and alternate in serving for one week each. These volunteers together with those from Gettysburg will not work a hardship on a few who

Find Jobs For Many Handicapped Here

Paul G. Pensinger has been elected chairman of the county committee for Employment of the Physically Handicapped. It was announced today by Laurence H. Cummins, manager of the local Pennsylvania State Employment Service office. The committee is named each year to help push the annual drive during National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week to secure employment for as many physically handicapped as possible.

Cummins reported to the committee that one-half of the 24 handicapped persons previously listed with the PSES as unemployed have received jobs during the past few weeks. A special effort is being made during the Employment Week, starting October 4, to place as many of the remaining 12 in positions as possible.

Cummins, in reporting to the committee, pointed out that the physically handicapped "generally make better employees than those not afflicted when they are given jobs that take advantage of their capabilities." Because of their handicap, many develop exceptional skills as a counterbalance and are among the most steady of employees, he said.

Other officers named for the committee are Dr. C. Harold Johnson, vice chairman, and Arthur J. Roth, secretary.

Hurricane Is Hanging Near Florida Coast

PANAMA CITY, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Florence, acting the part of a fickle woman, hung tantalizingly offshore in the Panama City area today, keeping her strongest winds at sea and swinging gusts up to 72 miles an hour at coastal points. The New Orleans weather bureau said the strongest winds wrapped around its center are about 100 miles an hour velocity. Heaviest winds felt 8 a. m. (EST) were 72 miles an hour—just under hurricane force of 75 miles—in the Fort Waltonbeach-Valparaiso area west of here.

Losing Some Force
The radar station at Eglin Air Force Base informed the weather bureau that the rain pattern indicated the eye had become distorted and elongated, stretching 60 miles east and west. This made it appear that something was happening to Florence, and she was losing some force.

Hundreds of persons were reported in shelters, waiting for the storm to swish its skirt of heaviest winds ashore. The center was expected to move inland between Panama City and Valparaiso. Thrashing rain accompanies the squalls that blew in from the sea in the Panama City area, and from land in the Valparaiso section, the little fishing town of Apalachicola, midway between Panama City and Valparaiso.

CHARGES THREAT
Emily Gastley, W. High St., has filed a surety of the peace charge against Richard Mitchell, also of W. High St., before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehor, claiming Mitchell threatened to shoot her in an argument over a dog. A hearing on the charge will be held before the justice at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Walter Doud, administrator at the Warner Hospital, slips a cup of coffee at the snack bar now in operation at the hospital under the supervision of the House Committee of the Hospital Auxiliary, Mrs. Leroy H. Winebrenner, chairman of the committee, is shown in the right background pouring a cup of coffee during her regular tour of duty.

are presently staffing the booth," Mrs. Winebrenner said. "I will appreciate receiving these volunteer offerings to serve."

The sponsoring group has received a number of gifts from interested parties and will welcome receipts of similar gifts from others. There is a demand for knitted garments for babies and other items of general service to hospital patients.

Guests At President Ike's Dinner Will Receive Plate

More than a dozen Adams County Republicans are expected to attend the Birthday Dinner for President Eisenhower at Hershey, October 13. The President's birthday is October 14.

SHAWNEE-ON-DELAWARE, Pa. Sept. 26 — Fred Waring couldn't get into the college glee club when he was a student at Penn State, but he'll be leading 7,500 men, women and children when they sing "Happy Birthday" for President Dwight D. Eisenhower in the Hershey, Sports Arena on Tuesday, Oct. 13.

"This will be the high-water mark for me," Waring said today at his combination home and music-enterprise headquarters as he prepared to leave for New York to resume his organization's fifth year in television with a network program Sunday night. He added: "Who wouldn't say that, if he'd been handed the job of providing entertainment for the biggest single birthday party in history to honor the President of the United States?"

Without disclosing the entire program of entertainment for the Sports Arena and the nearby Hershey football stadium, Waring lifted enough of the curtain to give a preview of the spectacles scheduled for the stadium where the President and Mrs. Eisenhower will have a box supper with more than 20,000 admirers, and in the arena where they will have ice cream and cake later.

ROAD BLOCKED BY SNOW FENCE; CAR HITS POLE

A Hanover man suffered cuts and bruises and his car was damaged to the extent of $900 early this morning when he swerved off a road between Littlestown and Hanover to avoid striking 12 rolls of state highway snow fence that had been piled on the highway.

Eugene Fred Weaver, 22, 265 Princess St., Hanover, told state policemen from the Gettysburg substation that he came upon the snow fence when he rounded a curve as he drove toward Hanover on the "back road" from Littlestown at 1 a.m. about a mile and a half east of Littlestown.

Weaver's car ran off the road into a ditch and struck a pole.

He suffered a laceration of the scalp and bruises of the legs. State police are investigating to find out how the snow fence which had been stacked nearly along the highway during the summer got onto the highway.

The police are particularly eager to find out who was responsible because the same thing happened last fall at the same spot. No accident was reported on that occasion but rolls of the snow fence had been placed on the road close to the same curve.

U.S. And Spain Sign New Pact

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and Spain today signed a 20 year defense agreement giving this country the right to develop and use naval and air bases on Spanish soil and assuring Spain of military equipment from the United States.

The historic action brought Franco's Spain, long shunned by the victors of World War II, into partnership with the United States in the West's defense against the danger of Soviet attack.

Ambassador James C. Dunn and Spanish Foreign Minister Alberto Martin Artajo also signed economic assistance and mutual defense assistance agreements, the latter spelling out the specific conditions under which Spain will receive military aid.

The State Department released the text of the three agreements today with a statement saying that assistance to Spain totalling 226 million dollars will be supplied under the mutual security program during the fiscal year ending next June 30.

Benefits Payments Are Changed By Law

Amendments to the Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation Law by the 1953 session of the Legislature have liberalized provisions applying to the payment of benefits to claimants who are working part-time, according to a statement today by David M. Walker, Secretary of Labor and Industry.

Secretary Walker said that one change permits a worker in less than full-time employment for any week to be eligible for unemployment insurance benefits if the money paid or payable to him for such week is less than his weekly benefit rate plus $6.

Prior to the amendment of the law a claimant for partial benefits was disqualified if he earned as much as his weekly benefit rate for the week.

Lawrence Cummins, manager of the local office, today invited employees and employers to visit the office at 39 West St. for further information on this subject.

Paper Suspended For One Month

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—President Gustavo Rojas Pinilla's government suspended the conservative newspaper El Siglo Friday from publishing for a month. The action was taken, the announcement said, because the paper printed material not passed by government censors.

El Siglo is owned by the family of former President Laureano Gomez, deposed last June 13 in a bloodless army coup led by Rojas Pinilla.

The suspension came after the newspaper printed a statement by the Conservative party's young peoples organization deploring the coup as "a regrettable precedent for the republican life of Colombia."

The government censorship office said the statement contained "subversive" passages.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force has advised Sen. Hendrickson (R-NJ) that it has abandoned, "at least temporarily," plan for a 73 million dollar air maintenance depot proposed for an undesignated site in the northeastern part of the country.

It was thought most likely that the big base would be built at Hampton, N. J.

Hendrickson today released a letter from Secretary of the Air Force Talbott in which the Secretary said it was the "unanimous agreement" of Air Force officials "that we should at least temporarily abandon the requirement for an additional depot."

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—It was a historic meeting, indeed, when two trucks collided on a downtown street here yesterday.

Police listed the drivers as George Washington and Benjamin Franklin.

Scribe Calls Cocktail Parties Fall Hunting, Trapping Season

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The fall hunting and trapping season is now on in Manhattan.

The denizens of the great concrete jungle foregather at a thousand water holes at dusk—in a dimming light they look better to each other—and began the night pattern of life and death in the big city forest.

They call these watering places cocktail parties, but if they water the cocktails very much the creatures present roar about it in resentment for days afterward.

Many people claim cocktail parties bore them. The truth is the reason they go to them is they are already bored. I love cocktail parties.

Backward Evolution

You can see in two hours the whole story of evolution unwind—backwards. The guests arrive as people. Three martini later they are children, and from then on you can watch them turn from children into animals. Why, it beats Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.

There usually is a new author present, the social lion of the evening. But after he has made only two trips to the watering trough, some guests already don't think much of him as a lion, doubt whether he can write his name, and are certain he is acting like a jackass.

As to the other birds and beasts—A middle-aged dowager who, strutted like a peacock when someone praised her dress gets mad as a wet hen when she sees her mousey husband has turned into a wolf who paws without pause at a sweet young girl, who is acting like a coy mink in search of a new coat.

The distinguished elderly politician is now a tired old buffalo, howling sadly about how he lost the herd in the last election. Three brokers in a corner have become a bear and two bulls, growling and bellowing about the business future.

The young man from Princeton who would like to work for any or all of them has attached himself like a leech to the group, and breaks out in hyena laughter.

The fat lady on a diet who wasn't going to nip a calorie is wrist deep in the imitation caviar canapes, a dear, friendly hog resigned to her fate.

The playboy who thought himself quite a shark is being played for a sucker by a fading actress, whose made-up face has fallen into cow shape except for the tiger glint in her eyes.

Wife Like A Barnacle The plain, frightened housewife whom nobody talked to is now a barnacle on her husband, and the way he shrugs her off you can tell he's a rat.

An ex-matinee idol, secretly fretting over whether his toupee is slipping, looks worriedly around like a wrinkled monkey. An elephant-sized banker complains his feet are dog-tired.

A music composer peers through thick-lensed glasses—an owl confused. A ballet dancer springs about like a muscle-bound gazelle. Yes, they are all here at the watering trough, the whole animal kingdom. From the book critic with the long nose—an ant eater looking for a target—to the fashion designer in the zebra shirt.

Study Animal Life

And moving warily amidst the shrieking, howling, coughing, grunting, whining, whinnying, roaring, bellowing, stamping, barking chaos of jungle sounds are the keepers of this menagerie—the waiters, holding out a tidbit to a claw here, a drink to an eager muzzle there.

It's a great place to study animal life, a Manhattan cocktail party. When you get home, you can't help glancing in the mirror and wondering:

"What resident of the zoo did I look like?"

But you'd just as soon not know.

Trucker Fights Off Hay-Hungry Farmers

SEDALIA, Mo. (AP)—R. C. Calen discovered an eager market for his hay the hard way. His truck, piled high with the stuff and en route to another county, cracked an axle and toppled over a few miles north of this Pettis County seat.

Almost immediately, hay hungry farmers began converging on the trucker, who escaped injury. Before either the highway patrol or a wrecker arrived, Calen had sold his load.

"I didn't know Pettis County needs hay so badly," he said. "I had several offers almost before the truck stopped rolling on its side."

(Continued from Page 1) on the output of its steel mills. Yet our State's output of pig-iron, ferro-alloys and steel far exceeds that of the combined Eastern and Western zones of Germany. Pennsylvania's 17,170,000 metric tons of pig-iron and ferro-alloys, in 1950, may be compared with 9,768,000 in all of Germany. Our production of steel ignots and castings in 1950 exceeded that of Germany by about 10 million metric tons; our production of steel also exceeded that of Great Britain by more than 7½ million metric tons, and our output of pig-iron in the latest year for which comparative data is available (1950) was greater than that of the British Isles by more than 7 million tons.

Our state's smelters produce far more slab zinc than those of Germany or of the United Kingdom, or of Russia. The output of crude oil from our state's wells—the oldest in the world—exceeds that of Germany by nearly 4 million barrels, in addition to which fact Pennsylvania leads all other states on the Atlantic Coast in output of gasoline and other products from its oil refineries.

In appraising these facts, which illustrate the importance of Pennsylvania's raw materials to the economy of our nation and of the world, it should be kept in mind that the combined zones of Germany have a population four times that of Pennsylvania and an area more than three times as great and that the United Kingdom has a population more than three times that of Pennsylvania and an area more than twice as great, so that the industry and productivity of our Commonwealth in such principal raw materials as steel, iron and petroleum products, is evidence not only of the richness of our resources, but also of the energy of our productive efforts.

Littlestown Chief of Police Melvin H. Swab has reported that Elmer King, monarch St. Extended, contacted him on Thursday morning to report that 20 chickens from his property had been killed on Wednesday night, apparently by a stray dog. Chief Swab and Bugess Herbert J. Motter went to the King property that day to investigate, and while they were there the dog returned. The dog was later disposed of. On Friday, Mr. Oaks from the bureau of animal industry and dog law enforcement officer, visited borough officials and reported that Mr. King will be reimbursed for his loss by the bureau of animal industry.

Mr. Oaks also suggested that, in order to control dogs, the borough officials insist that all dog owners have a license for their dogs and that the animals be confined and under control at all times. The law will be strictly enforced according to the borough ordinance regarding dogs. Previous warnings regarding restrictions on dogs have been ignored. Borough officials have announced that dogs not bearing a license will be disposed of and the owners of those dogs having a license and running loose will be prosecuted and subjected to a fine.

"INSIDE MY HEART"

Within my heart there is a place . . . where all my dreams are stored . . . a place where I keep my hopes . . . and faith in my dear Lord . . . I also store my doubts and fears . . . within my deepest heart . . . and there inside I calm the storm . . . that tears my joys apart . . . my love and passion dwell there too . . . beside the hate and greed . . . my heart is like a reservoir . . . that fills my every need . . . and though I only try to store . . . the goodly things of life . . . it seems my heart is crowded with . . . the things that cause me strife . . . but like all other folks I know . . . that it was meant to be . . . and what escapes from out my heart . . . is really up to me.

first shift of the 6,500 who will serve themselves roast beef and contribute $100 each to Republic off-year campaign funds, until 10 o'clock when the President and Mrs. Eisenhower leave for Washington, Waring said, "birthday fun will be king."

In the arena, seated in tiers behind the Waring orchestra and glee club on the stage will be 300 Pennsylvania high school boys and girls and college students, who for several weeks have been rehearsing choral numbers that will highlight the musical part of the evening.

"Roy Ringwald's 'Song of America' will be the featured number of the evening," Waring said. "In connection with this there will be a costume pageant depicting outstanding moments of American history, and another 500 high school and college students will take part. The 'Song of America' is the President's favorite and he's delighted that we're doing it."

Ike To Cut Cake
Other numbers the huge chorus has been rehearsing are "Ike, Mr. President," "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," "No Man is an Island," "Where, Oh, Where But in America," "Give Me Your Tired and Your Poor," "America, the Beautiful," and "God Bless America."

After President Eisenhower cuts a high birthday cake on the stage at the start of the party, he and Mrs. Eisenhower will be escorted to the place of honor, marked by the Presidential seal, from which they and members of the Eisenhower family will watch the evening's games.

"I can't give away all the surprises," Waring said, "but this is one that should get a lot of laughs. Ben Hogan, holder of the American and British Open golf championships, and a number of well-known golfers will drive cotton and plastic golf balls out to the audience . . . hundreds of them."

To Give Prizes
"There will be lucky numbers on some of the balls, and these may be drawings, too, and prizes will range from articles manufactured in Pennsylvania to vegetables and live animals raised on Pennsylvania farms."

Cabinet members, Senators and Congressmen, regardless of party, have been invited. All governors have been invited by Gov. John S. Fine of Pennsylvania. A number of distinguished guests and their ladies have volunteered to take part in old-fashioned party stunts, quartets and games like "Pin the Tail on the Donkey."

Each contributing big-top diner will also receive a china dinner plate bearing the signature "Dwight D. Eisenhower" in gold as a souvenir commemorating the party celebrating the President's first birthday in the White House. Except for greetings by the President in the stadium and the arena to those who have come to the party, there will be no speeches or introductions.

Typhoon Devastates Ancient Capital

SAIGON, Indochina (AP)—Several hundred Indochinese were believed dead and several hundred thousands homeless in a typhoon Friday which struck a 90-mile stretch of the central Indochina coast.

The destruction was centered on the ancient Annamite capital of Hue, 325 miles north of Saigon. The American economic mission estimated that 90 per cent of the population of Hue, a town of 25,000, and the surrounding area were homeless.

The typhoon reportedly hit an area of the South China sea coast between the big French air and naval base of Tourane and the village of Quang Tri on the north. French and American officials rushed aid to the stricken section.

Three-quarters of the Navajo Indians cannot speak English.

They are Denton (Cy) Young, Bill Dimeen and Fred Parent of the Boston Red Sox and Fred Clarke, Tommy Leach and Arthur Krueger of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Fat People Have High Mortality Rate

HARRISBURG (AP)—Dr. William E. Buller, Allentown, said today the heart disease mortality rate of fat people is nearly twice that of their underweight brothers and sisters.

"Obesity is definitely becoming the nation's No. 1 health problem," he told the opening session of the 53rd annual Post-graduate Conference of the Pennsylvania Osteopathic Assn.

"As the body mass increases and the number of blood vessels grows, the heart is forced to work harder and harder to supply blood and oxygen," said Dr. Buller.

He explained that extra weight adds a double strain to a heart already damaged by disease.

SEMANTIC SUGGESTION

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The Minnesota Society of Oregon, whose members refer to themselves as Webfooted Gophers, wants the Portland Chamber of Commerce to publicize Oregon's rain as "Gentle dew from heaven."

Stenographer, owned by Max Hamp of Camp Hill, Pa., and driven by Del Miller, set a new two-year-old trotting mark of 4:14.1-5 for 2-year-old fillies on a half-mile track.

Her first heat time of 2:06.3-5 equalled the world record.

The second new record was set by Sally J. MacPherson in two heats of a pace for 2-year-old fillies. Her times were 2:03.3-5 and 2:04. The owner is Ed Jones of Jackson, Ohio, and the driver was Slim Shilling.

Brady sagged to the floor and his gun rolled under a chair. Fox fell backward toward the stairs. Other agents moved up emptying their pistols into the booth.

Johnson, hit by two bullets in the right side of the chest and one which grazed his face, slumped against the door of the phone booth, jamming it tight.

"He didn't get out of the booth—not till we pulled him out," said Scott Alden, special agent in charge of the FBI here.

Alden said Johnson had a record going back to 1935. FBI records show he drew a 15-year sentence for bank robbery in 1941 and was sent to the McNeil Island federal prison. A "rough prisoner," he was later transferred to Alcatraz prison. He was conditionally released from Alcatraz last March 20.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

TEN YEARS AGO

Father Sullivan Goes to Harrisburg: The Rev. Fr. Norbert Anthony
Sullivan, assistant pastor of St.
Francis Xavier Catholic Church
here since September 11, 1940, has been transferred to St. Francis of Assisi Church, Harrisburg, as an assistant pastor. Bishop George L.
Leach announced today.

The transfer is effective Friday.
The Rev. Fr. Sullivan came here
from Centerville, Iowa, to replace the Rev. Fr. Raphael Gross.

Rev. Mr. Leedy Leaves Charge
Here On October 15: At a special
official board meeting which followed the morning service Sunday
in the Gettysburg Methodist Church,
the Rev. Paul D. Leedy, pastor, announced his transfer by the Rev. R.
Leban, district superintendent,
from the local church to the Methodist Church at Boiling Springs.

The change is being made to facilitate the local pastor's teaching
assignment at Dickinson College,
Carlisle. Since May 10, the Rev.
Mr. Leedy has been a member of the Dickinson College faculty, carrying on a full time teaching
schedule and at the same time
serving as pastor of the local church.
The Rev. Mr. Leedy was assigned to the local church at the annual Methodist conference a year and a half ago. He came here from Wrightsville. He succeeded the Rev.
D. Perry Burke, now in York, as pastor of the local church.

Paul Spangler Is Commander of Legion Post: Paul L. Spangler,
finance officer for the Albert J.
Lentz post of the American Legion
for the past two years, was named commander of the post at the annual election Monday evening.
He succeeds C. Arthur Brame.

Wilbur A. Geiselman was named
first vice commander; Howard Straussbaugh, second vice commander; Paul M. Rohrbaugh, adjutant;
James Howe, finance officer; Curvin Kroust, chaplain; William Allison,
historian; Russell Shetter and Raymond Fridinger, sergeants at arms,

Scout Report Presented to Rotary Club: A report on the activities of Boy Scout Troop 77 and a talk by Dr. Walter Coleman on the "Molly Maguires" labor disturbances in the mining areas of Pennsylvania during the latter part of the 19th century
were features of Monday evening's meeting of the Rotary club at the YWCA.

A rating of "excellent" was given Scoutmaster Jack Cenna for his work by the Rotary-Lions committee
in charge of Boy Scout Troop 77,
according to the report read by Vernon B. Corle. The report covers
the second year of the troop's activities. Thirteen new scouts were enrolled during the past year. Three assistant scoutmasters, William R. McClell, Clayton Warman and Norman Cenna, have been inducted
in the armed forces, the report showed.

Musical Revue Nets $713,000 in War Bonds: The Carlisle Medicoes,
the "Men beside the men behind
the gun," took Gettysburg by storm
Tuesday night, when they achieved
their two-fold objective—to provide an evening of entertainment and to help boost bond sales in Adams County—with the hit show "See Here Mr. Smith" in the high school auditorium.

A capacity crowd paid $713,000 in War Bonds to witness the performance and came away well satisfied with the almost two hours of comedy, hit tunes and old favorites.

Cooperative To Start Building
Lines Monday: The Adams Electric Cooperative, which before the war
had set a record of line construction work among cooperatives, on Monday will begin its first major
line building job undertaken since Pearl Harbor.

Workers of the Broadway Maintenance Corporation of New York
will begin on Monday to build 120
miles of new electric line through seven townships in York county to serve approximately 420 rural customers who have never had high
line electric current on their farms.
The cooperative, which has its headquarters in Gettysburg, energized its first lines early in May 1941
and now serves 1,622 customers
along 650 miles of line in Adams,

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

BORN TO LIVE

William (Billy) Muldoon, the famous athlete and trainer of athletes, and conditioner of men, once said that it was surprising the amount of punishment the human body could take. He also said that it was amazing what a little kindness to the body would do!

We were born to live but we must also have the will to live,
the will to learn, and the will to be self-reliant. We have by no means discovered the great possibilities of the human mind. What a power it has over all the activities of our lives. Its spiritual possibilities are yet to be revealed.

Science has revealed wonderful things about the body that a few years ago were unknown and not dreamed as possible, but you can't take the brain apart. As the seat of all physical and spiritual government, it still remains a thing of mystery and wonder.
When fear no longer cloud its entrance, and the light of faith
streams through it as a constant force, then perhaps we may look for the understanding that so eases us now.

We were born to live. Even the handicapped are given additional powers to balance those that may be lost or taken away. Nature is God's appointed guardian. This summer I have noted how the lower branches of trees die as the tree reaches to get a better hold upon the sunlight. Forever reaching upward. Likewise many of our earlier faculties die that greater strength may be given us to climb
peaks never before attempted to get a better hold on values unseen
or unrealized before.

Emerson told us to hitch our wagon to a star! Giving to us the idea that we should never limit
our aim in life. Born to live. Born to achieve, born to daily surpass ourselves. Let us be cheerful and hopeful, mindful of the watching
eye of our Creator, who gave birth
to us in the first place for a purpose—and that purpose was to live
usefully, happily, and hopefully.

LIFE'S UNCERTAINTY

Life gives none a guarantee.
This day we know, but to our sorrow
One with whom we joyed to be
May not still be here
tomorrow.

We have seen it happen so.
Shared a good friend's merry
laughter
Never thinking as we go,
Never more we'd laugh
hereafter.

Neither health nor strength is sure.
Friendships, how so dearly
treasured,
Only can so long endure
As their length by God is measured.

This we learn from day to day:
Time is something none can borrow.
Tell what heart and mind would say.

It may be too late tomorrow.

OCD Sends Two Fire Engines To Gettysburg: Gettysburg's Fire company has received two pieces of apparatus from the Office of Civilian Defense, but one of the pumpers may be shipped to Mc-Sherrytown, it was learned today.

The two pumpers, constructed on trailers and scheduled to act as auxiliary apparatus for the county

knocked down condition and are being put together today by the local firemen. L. Daniel Shealer,

Congressman Reed Expected
To Ask Congress In January
To Overhaul Federal Tax Laws

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—When Congress comes back in January, Rep.
Daniel A. Reed is expected to present it immediately with a big bundle of proposed changes in the federal tax laws.

Reed, a New York Republican
and one of the most powerful men
in Congress, wears two hats:

He's chairman of the House
Ways and Means Committee,
which handles tax matters for the House, and he's chairman of the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue
Taxation, made up of members of House and Senate.

In August 1951, Reed proposed
at a meeting of the joint committee that an overhaul of federal tax laws begin. That such a job needed doing had been obvious a long time.

Patches of Laws

Over the years Congress had piled one tax law upon another,
many times in haste to meet emergency need for revenue. The changes made in the laws from time to time were often patches
which did not cover holes.

Through the years, unfailingly,
Congress heard from individuals
and groups which complained this or that section of the law pinched them unfairly. The federal revenue code now has over 5,000 sections.
The overhaul proposed by Reed
began in July 1952, when the staff
of the joint committee sent a questionnaire to various groups and organizations around the country,
asking for specific suggestions to improve the tax laws.

Have 15,000 Suggestions
The staff, composed of lawyers,
accountants, economists and statisticians, received over 15,000 suggestions. Groups of tax experts
around the country studied problems like these:

Estates and trusts, foreign taxes,
depreciation, double taxation of dividends, pension trusts and profit-sharing plans, consolidated returns and the definition of income.

The joint committee staff, the staff of Reed's Ways and Means Committee and staffs of the Treasury Department and the Internal Revenue Service made joint studies covering the entire revenue
code.

The joint committee broke down
all the suggestions it received to about 40 topics of major importance. These topics presumably would be included in a bill Reed
could offer next January for revising the tax laws.

Held Public Hearings
With the 40 topics as a target,
the Ways and Means Committee itself held public hearings from last June 16 to Aug. 14. More than 500 witnesses were heard.

A drafting staff—lawyers who work for the House legislative counsel and whose job is drawing up bills to present to Congress—
will write the bill for Reed.

After Reed introduced the bill,
his Ways and Means Committee
could hold more hearings on the proposals he offered. That would be the end of the matter. The bill would then go to the full House for passage.

Hours later the dead persons had not been identified, and Deputy Coroner John R. Schofield said
the charred condition of the bodies
made it difficult to determine their
sex. The body removed from the driver's position appeared to be
that of a woman, he said.

The accident occurred on Route
1, the Baltimore Pike, 1½ miles
west of nearby Avondale.
The pickup truck was registered
in the name of Hagie Heck, of Oxford R. 2, who told state policeman Winfield Faust he had loaned it last night to a friend, Mrs. Edna Hash, about 30, of Oxford.

Faust said his investigation showed that the light truck had crossed over to the left side of the highway, climbed up an embankment and then overturned as it struck the pole.

Firemen from Avondale were called to the scene but were unable to approach the burning wreck
for some time due to danger from
"live" electric wires in the vicinity.

Will Make Billion
Dollars Of "Ammo"

PARIS (AP)—The North Atlantic
Council, governing body of NATO,
Friday announced plans to produce
a billion dollars worth of ammunition in Western Europe. The United States will pay part of the bill, but U. S. officials asked the amount of the American share be kept secret.

Britain's Lord Ismay, NATO
secretary general, called it the "biggest single program ever presented to the Atlantic alliance."
Object of the plan is to get West European factories to manufacture ammunition so the Allies can stop
depending on U. S. output.

"I will be financed by producing countries and by offshore procurement under the United States
mutual security program," Ismay
told newsmen.

ARMY OFFICER
IS FINED $840

FT. MEADE, Md. (AP)—After deliberating for nearly two hours, a six-man court martial board late Thursday found Lt. Norman Ackerman guilty of disobeying orders to vacate his Army quarters at Ft.
Jay, N. Y.

The 28-year-old Army psychiatrist was ordered to forfeit $140 of his pay every month for six months. The board also recommended that the officer be reprimanded.

Ackerman was charged with failing to move out of the post quarters
at Ft. Jay after his transfer to Valley Forge, Pa.

The lieutenant contended that illness of his wife and inability to find other quarters for her and his three children were the principal reasons they were not moved until May 12. The Army had told him to vacate by April 4.

Defense counsel also argued that
the order to vacate was given verbally and not in writing as it should have been and that Ackerman complied personally although he left his family behind.

The officer had applied for discharge on hardship grounds at the time of the incident.

6 North Korean
Leaders Go Home

TOKYO (AP)—Moscow radio said
Friday six North Korean officials including Premier Kim Il Sung,
left Moscow by plane for home Friday.

The broadcast in the Korean language monitored here by the New Asia news agency did not say whether the party would stop over at Peking or some place else on route to North Korea's capital of Pyongyang.

The North Koreans left Pjong-
yang Sept. 1 and arrived at Moscow on Sept. 11.

SIGN U. S. PACT
KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—Economics Minister A. K. Brohi told Parliament Friday Pakistan has signed agreements with the United States for about 21 technical cooperation projects involving a total of $25,954,000.

Another step in the change of season's activities concerning the spiritual life of this Catholic parish will be the celebration of high mass at 10 a.m. each Sunday, beginning, October 4. The regular choir has begun preparation to provide the Mass music, directed by Miss Maria Noel. Miss Noel and Miss Sylvia E. Klunk are church organ-ists.

Initial plans have already been begun by the local Lions club to conduct their annual Christmas holiday party for all youngsters of this area. For years, it has been usual for the children to meet at the local theatre on the afternoon of December 24 and be guests of the management at a juvenile movie, after which the Lions present
them with a treat.

The public supper planned for this evening for the benefit of the local Catholic church under sponsorship
of the Holy Name Society has been postponed until a date not yet announced.

The Marion Oates family, formerly of the Hanover area, who had been residing for several months
at the Charles Bear farm near Pine Run, moved recently to the Kingsdale section where they purchased property some week ago.
Mrs. Oates is improving after recent treatment at the Hanover Hospital.

NABBED BY FBI
CHICAGO (AP)—FBI agents Friday seized Grant H. Pursell, 24,
of Jenkintown, Pa., on a federal warrant charging him with violating the Mann Act.

Kline Weatherford, Chicago FBI
chief, said Pursell related that he transported four women from Danville, Va., to Durham and Sanford,
N. C., Aug. 26 for immoral purposes.

ELIZABETH N. J. (AP)—The Rev.
William G. Felmeth, D. D., pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church for 25 years, died at his home Friday following a heart attack.

He formerly was moderator of the Presbyterian Synod of New Jersey and had served as chairman of the synod's Committee on National Missions.

Welder Killed In Fall Inside Pipe

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—John
Logan, 34, of 1128 Walnut St., Chester, was killed Friday in an accidental plunge 65 feet inside an upright pipeline at the Gulf Oil Corp. refinery.

Deputy Coroner Alan Rossa said that Logan, a welder, was on a metal platform suspended from chains at the top of the 42-inch-wide pipe. The chains were attached to a hook by means of a cotton pin. Rossa said that Logan apparently knocked the cotton pin
out of place causing the entire
platform to collapse and tumbling
him to the bottom of the pipe.

7 Killed In Crash
Of Turkish Plane

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—Three
crew members and four passengers
were killed Friday in the crash of a Turkish Airways plane here.

Hugh Duckworth, American advisor to the airline, said the pilot
and several other passengers were seriously injured and "it's a miracle there are any survivors at all."

There were 16 passengers on the plane, a two-engine DC3, when it attempted a takeoff from Ankara Airport for Eastern Turkey. One engine exploded as the plane was climbing and the aircraft crashed
in flames in a creek. Duckworth
said there were no Americans aboard.

GHS Downs Carlisle 14-7; Penn Passes For TD, Races 77 Yards For Winning Tally

Underdog Gettysburg High School out-Penned Carlisle High, 14-7, to win its first Southern Pennsylvania Conference test and remain undefeated before nearly 5,000 frantic fans at Carlisle Friday night.

Warrior quarterback George Penn's 77-yard run from punt formation on third down and 29 yards to go for a first down in 6:10 of the final quarter was the deciding factor. Penn took off around left end, cut back through the center, veered to his left and then reversed his field at the Carlisle 29 to go the whole way untouched by a Carlisle defender. Penn took fine advantage of his interference as the blockers cut down any would-be tacklers before they could get near him.

It was Penn, too, who engineered the first six-point in 4:20 of the third quarter. On an attempted punt, Bob Evans fumbled the pass from center and recovered on his own 24, but the Warriors took over on downs. After a Penn to Charles Livingston pass was incomplete, Livingston gained nine on the ancient Statue of Liberty play. Ronnie Williams, who is showing better form every game, hit left tackle for 10 for a first down on the five. Williams failed to gain, but on the next play Penn ran to his right, jumped and twisted in the air and tossed a perfect strike to Stanton Musser in the end zone. In both touchdowns Penn added the extra points by placement.

Carlisle wasted no time in scoring after the game started. The home team kicked off to the Warriors but they were unable to gain in four downs and Penn punted to the Carlisle 45.

Glenn Hassinger took a pitchout around left end for 11, and Delbert Lincoln, on a pitchout around right end, picked up six. In two plays over the center of the line Glenn Hassinger gained nine to place the ball on the Gettysburg 27.

Carlisle Scores
Larry Warner moved the ball to the 15 on a pair of plays. Del Lincoln, who was Carlisle's best ground gainer, went over left guard for six more. On three off-tackle slants Warner plunged over the taut touchdown in 7:20. Hassinger place-kicked the extra point.

The Warriors and Indians traded the ball with no serious threat until the final four minutes of the second period when Carlisle's Lincoln returned a Penn punt to the Gettysburg 49. Hassinger took a pitchout around left end for eight and Lincoln on a similar play picked up 12. Quarterback Duane Ream's pass intended for Bob Delancey was too long, and Hassinger hit center for 1. Ream fumbled and recovered for a loss of six, and then passed to Lincoln for 20 to the Warrior 19. With a minute of play remaining in the period, Ream passed to Delancey to the 10 but Delancey's lateral went wide and the Warriors recovered.

The Thundering Herd roared back after the first Warrior score and drove deep in Maroon territory on its own 20, on a pitchout around left end, gained three and Lincoln drove over left tackle for seven. Lincoln picked up another seven and Evans took a pitchout for one. Lincoln added six more to the 47. Hassinger, Lincoln, Taylor Hodge and Hassinger again moved the ball to the Warrior 35. Here the Shoemaker-clan braced as Warner and Hodge lost one on two plays. A Ream-Cochrane pass was good for four but on the next play another Ream pass to Cochrane in the end zone was ruled incomplete. That was the end of Carlisle.

Penalties Confusing
Oddly enough a series of mysterious penalties set up Penn's brilliant scamper. After Lincoln fumbled early in the fourth period, Bushey recovered for the Maroons on their own 42. A screen pass lost three and Carlisle declined an off-sides penalty against the visitors. Carlisle on the next play was penalized 15 from where the infraction took place but just what the penalty was for had both coaches and all fans puzzled. On the next play Gettysburg was penalized 15 and again fans and coaches were puzzled.

Coaches Shoemaker and Cervino walked out on the field and asked what the penalty was for, and the Warriors were penalized 15 more. That was the setting for Penn's long jaunt. It was third and 29 and the ball rested on the Carlisle 23. In a similar situation earlier in the game Penn had punted on third down. Again, it appeared that Penn was going to boot. But the ball was centered and Penn took off and that was the ball game.

While Penn was the star in the game, it was still a team victory. Earl Kuykendahl, senior transfer from New Oxford who is playing football for the first time, made several brilliant tackles. Jay Schmitt played another fine defensive game as did Carl Westerdahl.

Remain Unbeaten
It was a sweet triumph for Coaches Shoemaker and Cervino who lost most of their varsity performers

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—American Stores Co., which last Saturday helped the Villanova-Georgia football game draw 98,000 people to Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium by purchasing a huge block of tickets, is lending a helping hand for the King's College-East Stroudsburg Teachers game here next Saturday.

The grocery chain has purchased 10,000 tickets for the game, to be given away free to each customer who purchases $10 or more worth of groceries. A similar promotion was used for the Villanova-Georgia game.

King's officials say they hope the promotion will boost fan interest in college football in the Wyoming Valley. The college's have been unable to compete successfully with the more than 30 high schools in the area for fans.

The Detroit Lions have on their roster 15 men who formerly played with other teams in pro football.

KEYSTONER IS HAILED AFTER "JUG" VICTORY

By FRITZ HOWELL
DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—A brown colt which wrote a storybook finish to Thursday's "Little Brown Jug" was hailed today as the best of this country's three-year-old pacers.

Apparently hopelessly out of it after losing the first two heats of the $54,971.20 classic, Cleveland's George H. Tippling's speedy and durable Keystoner grabbed the third mile dash and then defeated two other heat winners in an extra jaunt to pick up $21,255.93.

It was the first four-heat Jug since the inaugural 1946, and it wasn't settled until deep dusk had fallen over the Delaware County Fairgrounds half-mile track.

6th In First Heat
The sterling son of Hal Dale-Lata Long, the pre-race favorite finished sixth in the first heat, but was only a length back of Hillsota, owned by F. R. McNabb of Ithaca, Mich., as that horse took the second.

Newport Chief, sidewheeling star of the Newport Stock Farm of Plainfield, N. J., took the opening dash, with Hillsota second, and it looked as if one of them would wrap it up in the third heat. Newport Chief led all the way to the head of the stretch, and Hillsota stormed from far back and headed for the wire.

But Keystoner, under the expert guidance of veteran Frank Ervin, leading Grand Circuit driver of 1952 from Aiken, S.C., broke out of the pack to nip Hillsota by a neck in a great stretch drive.

Going Away At Finish
The three heat winners came back for the big one, with an extra $10,994.44 going to the winner. The first three heats had been timed in 2:03 3-5, 2:03 and 2:03 3-5, but the pacers slowed up for the last one as they jockeyed for position.

Newport Chief took the lead, with Keystoner second and Hillsota third, as they hugged the rail for the first half mile in 1:08 3-5. They went the final mile in 1:01, and Keystoner was going away, a length ahead of Newport Chief, as they went under the wire. Hillsota broke gait 50 yards from the finish and five lengths away.

Keystoner thus became the first Ohio-owned horse to win the feature, and Ervin became the third driver to win it twice. Other two-time winners were Del Cameron, who piloted Newport Chief to second yesterday, and Wayne (Curly) Smart of Delaware, who piloted Dutch Dandy to eighth place in yesterday's first heat and then drew the horse.

About 40,000 saw the race in which Keystoner boosted his 1953 winnings to $53,959.93. Hillsota won $13,926, Newport Chief $9,528.50, Countess Vivian $4,397.78, Times Square $2,931.85, Knox Hanover $2,198.88, and Poplar Glen $732.96. More than 700 were nominated for the race, but only 13 paid the starting fee of $500, boosting the contribution of each to $960.

Giambro Will Be Throwing KO Punch

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Middleweight Joey Giambro will be throwing a knock-out punch tonight in his efforts to convince Tuzo Portuoguez that his June victory over the Costa Rican kid was no home town decision.

The 10-round return bout is being staged by the Hudson-Boxing Club at the Memorial Auditorium and will be telecast nationally (ABC, 8 p.m., EST).

Buffalo's rising young battler sixth ranking 160-pounder in the Ring Magazine poll, won a split decision over Portuoguez in their first meeting here this summer. Tuzo claimed it was a hometown verdict.

"This time Tuzo will be his own official," said trainer Jack Friday. "The officials will be in his fists and he'll win by a knockout."

Scouting The Series O.F. Edge To Brooklyn

(This is the first of four stories comparing the Yankees and Dodgers.)
By FRANK ECK
AP Sports Editor

NEW YORK—Despite Yankee superiority over the Dodgers in their four previous fall classics most baseball men will take Brooklyn's outfield over the gardeners employed by the world champions in this Golden Anniversary World Series.

The Dodgers' regulars—Carl Furillo, Duke Snider and Jack Robinson—are enjoying their best year collectively. Furillo is leading the National League in hitting with .344 when he broke a bone on his left hand and was sidelined Sept. 6. Collectively this trio has hit only .232 in World Series play.

The Yankees' picket men—Hank Bauer, Mickey Mantle and Gene Woodling—are 300 hitters this year but their averages are below each of the Dodgers' regular gardeners.

Have Combined .250 Mark
Collectively they own a .250 Series mark but that's mainly because Bauer had made only seven hits in 20 Series games for 123.

In homers, the Dodger outfielders lead, 5 to 4, thanks to the four Snider hit last year.

The best Series average is owned by switch-hitter Mantle (.324) but he has been no ball of fire since the spring. He hit two homers last fall but at this time a year ago he was as hot as Snider. As a matter of fact, both made 10 Series hits in 29 trips in 1952 for .345 averages in seven games.

As fielders both can cover ground and throw well.

But off Snider's late-season hitting streak he must be accorded the edge.

Robinson In Left
In left field, a position new to Robinson, the Negro speedster must get the nod because of his heavier bat and his better arm. The Dodgers will run on Woodling.

Although Woodling owns a .323 Series mark for 20 games against Robbie's .212 for 19 games, Robinson this season hit above .300 for the fifth straight year. He is 38 points higher in lifetime batting.

In right field, while Bauer must be remembered for his great catch in the sixth game against the Giants in 1950, Furillo has the best arm in baseball. And he has been a hot hitter.

In No. 1 reserves, the Yankees' Irv Noren gets the edge over bad-legged George Shuba though both hit .300 in the 1952 Series.

Yankee Bill Renna and Dodger Don Thompson, Bill Antonello and Dick Williams have yet to play in a Series.

Delone Catholic High crashed into the win column for the first time Friday evening by up-ending the Scotland gridders 13-12 on the McSherrystown gridiron. About 1,400 fans witnessed the contest.

Jake Chrimer was the outstanding performer for the Squires as he accounted for all points on a pair of touchdowns and what proved to be the winning point on a placement for the extra point following his first period tally.

Midway in the opening quarter Chrimer broke through center, shot into the clear and outraced the Cadets' secondary defense to scamper 36 yards into pay dirt. He booted the extra point which eventually was the margin of victory.

The teams battled to a scoreless stalemate in the second period but in the third quarter Coach Johnny McMahon's outfit hiked their lead to 13-0.

Glenn Zeigler, Delone tackle, intercepted a Scotland pass on his own 42-yard line to provide the spark for the score. After the Squires reeled off three straight first downs, Chrimer took the ball on the 15 and raced around end for the TD. His placement for the punt was blocked.

Scotland bounced right back and scored on a long pass play. Chaney tossed an aerial to Burns on the Delone 45 from where the latter streaked for the tally. The try for the point failed.

In the opening minutes of the fourth period Scotland scored again after holding and taking the ball on downs. Four straight first downs put the Cadets on the Squires' 1 from where Burns smashed through the line. His plunge for the point was halted by the stalwart forward wall of Delone.

Major Leagues Write Hatful Of New Records On Last Big Night Of Season; Parnell Blanks Yanks

By BEN PILEGAR
The major leagues used their last big night of the 1953 season to write a whole hatful of records and best performances into the books.

In most instances it was a case of "the best since" or "the first since" instead of just plain "best" or "first" but it still is quite an impressive list. There was something in every game.

Harvey Haddix became the first rookie on the St. Louis Cardinals to win 20 games since Johnny Beazley in 1942. He breezed to an 11-2 victory over Chicago with the help of 19 hits, four of them by Red Schoendienst.

Bob Porterfield pitched his ninth shutout and his 22nd victory as Washington edged Philadelphia 1-0 with a ninth inning run. Porterfield is the first Washington pitcher since 1933 to win as many as 22 games.

Al Dark of the New York Giants set a National League record for home runs by shortstops when he hit his 23rd of the year in the Giants' 6-2 triumph at Pittsburgh. The old mark of 22 was set by Glenn Wright of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1930.

Milwaukee and Cincinnati weren't scheduled.

Unbeaten Columbia Hands Biglerville 27-7 Defeat; Dehoff Gets Canner Score

Columbia High School's unbeaten football team chalked up its third successive victory of the season Friday evening when it downed the scrappy Biglerville High Canners 27-7 at Biglerville in a Conference of the Roses game.

A pair of touchdowns in the first period, the second of which came on a 70-yard touchdown scamper by Gordy Scarbaugh, ace ball totter for the invaders, gave Columbia a lead which was never seriously threatened despite a grand rally by the Canners in the third period which lead to an early fourth period tally.

Biglerville kicked off to open the game and Columbia staged an uninterrupted march from its 37 for a score. Four straight first downs were recorded on running plays to move the ball to the 8-yard line. Manley bolted to within inches of the goal from where Bonfardin crashed over. Scarbaugh went around right end to add the extra point.

A little over two minutes later Columbia scored again. Biglerville failed to gain after receiving the kickoff and punted to the Columbia 28. On the second play Scarbaugh cut to the side and streaked down the side-lines for his 70-yard run. He added the extra point by plunging through the right side of the line.

Rowe Intercepts
Early in the second period Columbia was again deep in Biglerville territory when Bryant Rowe intercepted an aerial to stop the threat on the Canner 20. However, the upper countains were soon forced to kick, the boot going to the Biglerville 37. After picking up a first down on the 10, The Canners braced momentarily but on the third play Scarbaugh went over from the 2. Snyder's placement for the point was wide.

Coach Gene Haas' lads finally hit their stride and completely dominated play in the third quarter.

One trouble is that so many drivers who trust to luck do not have a return ticket.

Dividends From Summer

This should be the season when your driving is at its best, considering all the practice obtained during summer and fall touring. People whose driving is limited to shopping and visiting in the cool and cold seasons get back into the groove during the summer sojourns. It should be a factor for safety.

The fact that it so often falls to have this result is that so often more extensive driving is merely repetition of bad driving habits. Fortunately most drivers quickly become aware of their shortcomings and are forced into polishing up their skills. It may have been a panic stop or a near accident, or perhaps some failure of the car itself to respond. Summer driving shows up the risk in fatigue, the importance of better eyesight and the effect of passenger and luggage load on the car's capabilities.

All this has served as a "refresher course" in driving and ought to be extremely useful when the slippery season arrives. Nothing stresses the need for practice more than practice itself.

May Be Overlooked

Most motorists know that the clutch pedal should have the usual one-inch free travel, but few realize that there should also be travel of the brake pedal during which nothing happens. This free play in the pedal serves an important purpose by preventing hydraulic pressure from being applied to the piston of the master cylinder when the brakes are released. It runs around 3/4 inch.

A rather common cause of high oil consumption which too many motorists overlook is clogging of the oil return holes in the pistons. Too much oil is then trapped around the rings where it burns off. Clogging is reduced and sometimes cured by careful use of special lubricants. Sometimes all the owner need do is to drain off and refill the crankcase with the heavy duty oil.

If the holes are clogged with carbon, however, the engine will need a manual cleaning up.

Mechanic Joe Speaking

"One of the biggest helps in diagnosing car ailments is to be able to aggravate the condition by some special movement of the car. A good example is the case of a car that always gave out with a tiny noise when the driver was starting off fast in low gear and was making a sharp left turn at the same time. He didn't get the noise on a sharp right turn.

"This turned out to be due to a combination of a too loose engine plus the muffler and tail pipe being too close to the frame side member. On those left turns the muffler moved right and too close to the frame. This would have made just one thumping noise had it not been for the fact that the engine shook violently in its loose mounts. The exhaust system of the modern car is sensitive to engine shake."

Sludge More Photogenic

In considering the whys and wherefores of oil filtration it is a good idea to bear in mind that the real advantage in trapping contaminants in the oil is the opportunity to get rid of abrasives before they can cause abnormal wear on vital engine parts. Much is made of a filter's ability to trap out sludge, but this is quite secondary. Abrasives are tiny particles of metal and as such do not make much of a picture, so the filter manufacturers invariably show a mechanic taking out an old element fairly dripping with gooey black stuff commonly known as sludge.

Where The Gas Goes

Using too much gas? Just a few of the things you may have overlooked are:

A clogged air cleaner which enriches the mixture by cutting down on the percentage of air entering the carburetor. Leaks in the fuel system, especially round the fuel pump and filter. Too high fuel pump pressure. Too little heat from the manifold heat control. And too fast idling.

Good News In Publishing

Many interest centers on the new automobile magazine "Cars" which is appearing on a monthly basis beginning this month. It is a consumer publication designed to interest anyone who has any leaning at all toward things automotive — not just a magazine for sport car enthusiasts or those interested in speed. It's a lively book, packed with pictures, personalities and information of value to everyone interested in everything automotive.

Many of the country's automotive editors are scheduled to appear in "Cars." I'm happy to report that I will be among those present. My first articles are on my favorite subject of nursing the family car to better health and greater service, but I hope to branch out into other facets of the subject of motoring upon occasion.

Ever Since "Motor Life" Faded

from the national picture the publishing business has considered an all-around automotive magazine too risky. Trade magazines have flourished right along, but the belief was that the public would not support a strictly automotive magazine. But here it is. Sponsored by Fawcett how can it miss?

Time As A Gauge

When trouble develops time has everything to do with its proper diagnosis. I was reminded of this the other evening when the motor temperature suddenly swung over to the "hot" side. But the motor had just started so obviously the engine wasn't overheating. A short in the gauge wire proved to be the answer. The time element is always important. An engine would not overheat as suddenly as the gauge seemed to indicate.

Failure to read instructions is particularly bad in the case of installing piston rings because there are various types of rings and it is important to guard against using some general rule when a more specific one is needed. Some of the smartest observers of the motor scene are loud in praise of this business of reading carefully the piston ring maker's advice. Rings produced by different companies have different characteristics. There's just enough variety to justify the belief that it isn't the kind of rings that count but the skill of the person who installs them.

Having Their Troubles

Q. What would cause the engine to stumble when idling? Ignition has been carefully checked. J. L. V.

A. Better check the windshield wiper. There may be a leak in the line, causing a too lean mixture. If this car has a fuel pump with a vacuum booster for the windshield the diaphragm of the vacuum pump may be punctured.

Q. Is it possible to crank the engine of a car with an automatic transmission by coasting and then going into gear or "drive" as with a conventional transmission? J. M.

A. Yes, but the car will need to reach a speed of from 15 to 25 mph before the shift to "drive" is effective.

Q. I plan to add directional signals to my car, but want to use the least amount of candlepower because of the drain on the battery. What would be the least candlepower bulbs I could use and still be effective? Wm. L. Jr.

A. Unless you use the size bulbs in cars factory equipped with directional signals you may as well not bother with the idea. It is important that signal lights be bright enough to attract the attention of anyone behind.

Q. I can't seem to get a ping from the engine of my car. Usually I have been able to get just enough ping on sharp acceleration to prove that the ignition timing is sufficiently far advanced. Now when I advance the timing the engine is too rough, and I get backfiring when cranking. F. G.

A. Gasoline is high in anti-knock rating as of this writing. I think this easily explains why you can't get the usual "ping clue" with an engine with relatively low compression. It would be different if your engine were in the higher compression bracket.

Q. The engine of my car has developed a very mixed-up condition. As far as I am able to determine, by checking the ignition, cylinders Nos. 3 and 4 are not hitting. Plugs for these two cylinders are sufficiently wet with oil to indicate that they are not firing, but there is no improvement when I clean and replace these plugs. L. F. McB.

A. From where I sit this looks like a case of a head gasket leak between these two cylinders.

Q. Was it ever possible to start engines on compression? K. K. B.

A. This was one of the oddities of the earlier engines. Occasionally one would be timed and set up just right for self-starting at the mere flick of the ignition switch, but always under certain limitations. I remember a friend's Westcott Six which did the trick like a trained seal.

Q. My car steers oddly when I am backing into the street. What's wrong? T. H. B.

A. Nothing. Because the whole car is twisted when driving across the gutter steering is temporarily altered.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern St., West Hartford, 7, Conn., and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. There is no charge.

Union Bolts From Ousted Organization

NEW YORK (AP)—A big Brooklyn local has bolted the International Longshoremen's Assn., ousted from the AFL last Tuesday and disputing with the New York Shipping Assn. over a new contract.

Local 1199-1 announced Thursday it was breaking away from the union headed by Joseph P. Ryan.

INTERVIEWING OF PRISONERS IS DELAYED 5 DAYS

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The Korean repatriation commission Friday proposed a five-day delay before the Communists and Allies try to coax home prisoners refusing repatriation—apparently because of disagreement over rules.

The U.N. Command promptly agreed to postpone the start of prisoner interviews—a phase of the truce which an Allied spokesman called "the psychological battle of our time." But it insisted that the five days be deducted from the 90-day interview period fixed by the Korean armistice and which starts Sept. 25.

There was no immediate Red reply.

Will Question 22,959

During the 90-day interview period, 22,600 former prisoners of the U.N. and 359 prisoners captured by the Reds—including 23 Americans—are to be questioned by their original side.

The five-nation neutral commission, composed of India, Sweden, Switzerland, Czechoslovakia and Poland, said the delay was necessary because "arrangements and facilities" for the interviews had not been completed.

The commission reportedly has been trying to reconcile widely different recommendations submitted by the Allies and Reds on rules to govern the operation.

There are these main points of conflict between the Allied and Communist views:

1. The Communists insist on interviews with individual prisoners; the Allies demand groups of 25.

Fear Intimidation

2. The U.N. Command wants the prisoner to have the right to refuse to listen to the explanations; the Communists demand that all prisoners listen.

The Allies object to individual interviews in the belief that a prisoner appearing before Red explainers might be intimidated by threat of reprisal and other means.

The U.N. holds that chances for coercion would be at a minimum in a crowd. Moreover, the U.N. view is based on the belief that the groups of 25 who have been together while in captivity are under the orders of their leaders and would resist repatriation to communism.

The U.N. Command says a prisoner should be allowed to refuse to go to the explanations on the ground that he already has made his choice and that any reversal must be done by "an overt" act on his part—that is, by applying to the repatriation commission for repatriation.

and said it was ready to apply for membership in the new longshoremen's union to be formed by the AFL.

The local also denounced Ryan's move in cutting the ILA's wage increase demand from 50 cents an hour to 10 cents.

Ryan turned down an 8 1/2-cent offer by the employer group on Thursday. The ILA contract with the shipping association expires at midnight, next Wednesday.

Convict Youth In Pistol Slaying

CANANDAIGUA, N. Y. (AP)—Fred Eugene McManus, who has been found guilty of first-degree murder in the pistol-slaying of William Allen Braverman, will be sentenced here today.

Justice H. Douglass Van Duser set the time at 9 a. m. after a State Supreme Court jury of 10 men and two women Thursday returned the guilty verdict with a recommendation that McManus be imprisoned for life.

The 19-year-old Valley Stream, L. I., youth could be sentenced to death in the electric chair despite the jury's recommendations. In most cases, however, the jury's recommendation is followed.

McManus, who has confessed four other killings, showed no emotion as the verdict was announced and the jury individually polled.

NEW THREAT TO IKE'S GOAL ON BUDGET LOOMS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration today faced a new threat to its goal of a balanced budget: a possible Democratic drive against keeping revenue even up to present levels.

Rep. Jere Cooper (D-Tenn) got out a statement yesterday arguing that some eight billion dollars in tax cuts be allowed to take effect as scheduled next year barring any new emergency.

Cooper also announced opposition to any new taxes to make up the loss in revenue.

Cooper is senior Democrat on the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee and usually works closely with House Democratic leaders.

The Eisenhower administration has asked Congress to cancel a scheduled two billion dollar cut in corporation income taxes and a one billion dollar reduction in excise or sales taxes. Both reductions are scheduled under present laws for April 1.
